XAVIERIAN

1956

ON THE SHIELD OF XAVIER HIGH SCHOOL, the bars represent the Jesuit Order, and the lilies, the Sisters of Charity of the Blessed Virgin Mary. The phoenix above the rising sun indicates the locale. Knots of the cord encircling the shield symbolize four years of scholastic achievement dedicated to Christian principles as expressed in the diocesan motto, "Omnia pro Jesu."

THIS CHANGING WORLD

"The end of Christian education is to cooperate with divine grace in forming the true and perfect Christian . . . to form Christ in those regenerated by baptism."

WHERE THERE IS PROGRESS, changes are inevitable. At Xavier High School, nineteen fifty-six will be remembered as a year of endings and a year of bright beginnings.

First, it marks the realization of an old, old dream in the completion of the first two units of the new high school. Into this sparkling new world, students and faculty have carried the spirit of the old Xavier, keeping its loved traditions, but adapting them to different surroundings, and building on the foundations of the past for a fruitful, glorious future.

Too, it commemorates a decade of graduating classes, as the "Anniversary Class" walks through the daisy chain to the strains of Pomp and Circumstance, and thence into the strange new world of womanhood.

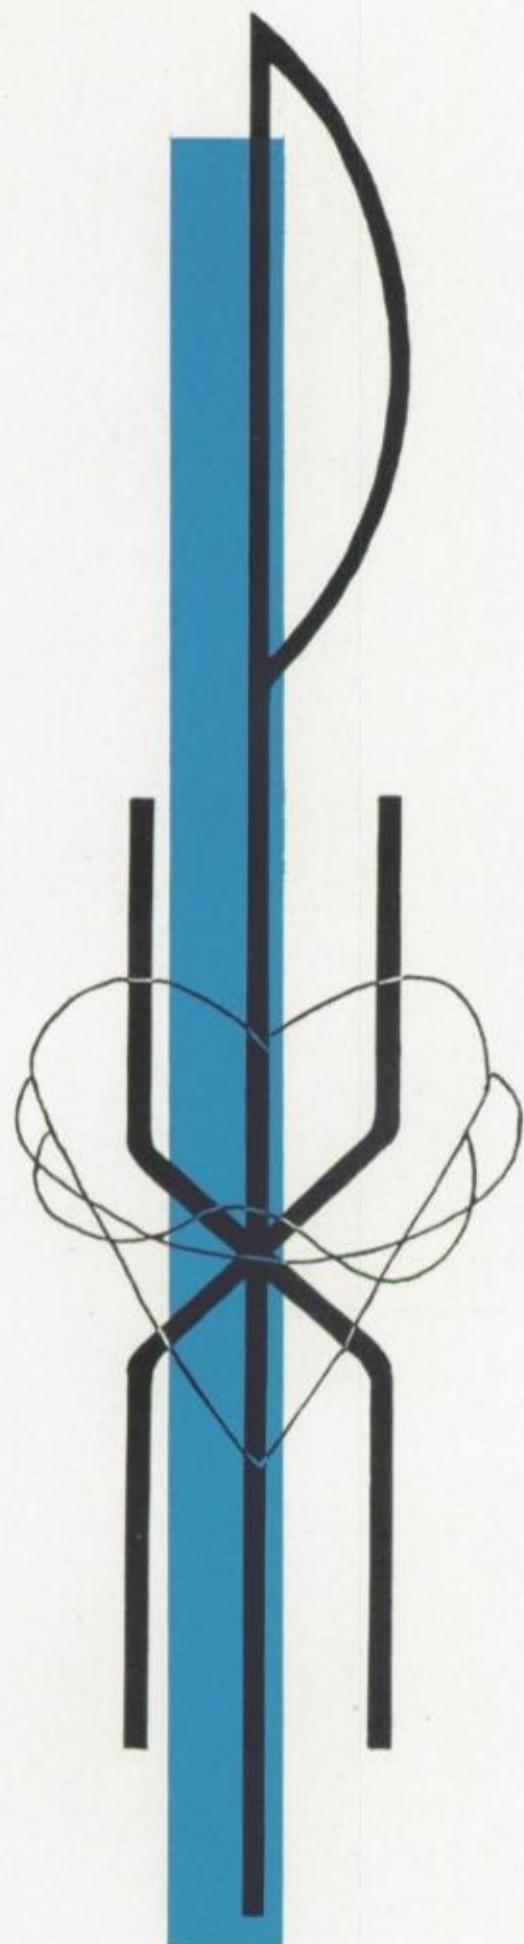

But more important than these is the change wrought in each individual student in her progress toward the Ideal . . . toward the forming of Christ in her personality.

This changing world . . . the life of every girl at Xavier . . . material and intellectual and spiritual expansion . . . putting off the old and donning the new . . . linking the past with the future by the indestructible ties of loyalty and love . . . These are the never-to-be-forgotten days . . . the days we would hold undimmed in memory. And so, with pencil, pen, and camera, we strive to catch them as they hurry toward their sunset, and press them, like the petals of a flower, between the covers of the 1956 Xavierian.

DEDICATION

To that one Heart,
In all this changing world,
Forever changeless;
One Beauty,
New as dawn
And timeless as eternity;
One matchless Harmony
That gathers every lost and wavering tone
Into Its quiet cadences;
One Friend, most gracious
And forgiving of our importunities.
To Him we give ourselves in dedication,
And through the pages of our annual,
We offer Him the homage
Of our high school days,
Our work and play
And every small endeavor,
To be transformed by Him
To beauty and to harmony.
To Christ, our constant Friend,
We give our love,
And seek, though all unmeriting, this sweet return,
His Sacred Heart.

ADMINISTRATION

"All these labor unselfishly with zeal and perseverance in . . . 'the art of arts and the science of sciences,' the direction and formation of youth."

To the Graduates of Xavier High School:

Besides doctrine, reason and common sense play an important role in determining the claims made by the Catholic Church. From the day Christ established the Church and gave her the divine commission to feed His lambs and sheep, it has been her claim in theory and in practice that true education must include a religious and moral training.

This is, of course, but common sense. Of what avail is a physical or intellectual giant if his career is not guided by moral principles? This explains then why your teachers and parents have been willing to make so many sacrifices that you might enjoy the benefits which have come to you during the years of your schooling.

Now, that you are graduating, be mindful of the privilege that you have had by employing your education to good advantage always with a view to your last end. Ultimately this it is that counts. Nothing else has lasting value.

On this happy occasion, I send a blessing with greetings to all the teachers and students of Xavier High School.

+Daniel J. Greene,

Bishop of Tucson

My dear Graduates:

We happily congratulate you as the tenth graduating class and as the first of the new Xavier High School.

You were given the sacred trust of bringing to the new school all the loving traditions of the old. And the most cherished is Xavier's filial devotion to Mary. She has stood as the gracious symbol of everything that is noble in human nature.

Woman above all women glorified,
Our tainted nature's solitary boast,
Purer than foam on central ocean tossed.

She has ever been Xavier High's glorious boast and you have carried her triumphantly into the bright halls of the new school to reign supreme in the hearts of all girls of Xavier.

We are sure that you will carry her and her virtues further — out from these walls into the world that sorely needs more women much like your glorious Mother Mary.

God love you and keep you in His care.

Daniel J. Kelleher S.J.

Dear Graduate,

God bless you on this day of days, your graduation.

The tremendous change that enters your life today has been long in coming and long in preparation. Yet in your heart you realize that it was all too short, as school doors close behind you and you walk into a different life.

Into that new life take from the old all that has been good and useful: knowledge, yes, and skills in many fields; but, more than these, take with you the pride of your Christian heritage. Take your ideals, clarified and strengthened in completely Christian surroundings; your friendships and your loyalties, never to be relinquished or forgotten; the wisdom that comes from daily contact with the Spirit of Holiness and Truth. Take into your world those strong principles of Catholic womanhood, learned at Mary's knee, that you may be a citadel to those less favored than yourself. Take your tender love for Christ and let it shine with ever-growing brightness in your life. Take a strong heart and a valiant spirit, so that you, the end-product of Catholic education, may freely give what you have so freely received.

And take with you, too, dear Graduate, the love and devotion of your teachers here at Xavier, and the promise of our prayerful concern through all your years.

Lovingly in the Sacred Heart,

Sister Mary Emerita, B.V.M.

XAVIER HIGH SCHOOL is maintained and operated by St. Francis Xavier Parish, under the direction of the Jesuit Fathers. It has been conducted by the Sisters of Charity of the Blessed Virgin Mary since its opening in September, 1943.

The faculty is composed of religious men and women who have dedicated themselves to the Greater Glory of God, their own sanctification, and the salvation of their neighbor through the Christian education of youth.

In cooperation with these religious teachers, a small number of competent lay staff members devote their time to the supervision of the health program and physical well-being of the students.

THE CAMPUS

Lovely lines of Spanish influence . . . red tiles above white walls . . . the peace of cloistering arches . . . our sainted Patron in the sunlit patio . . . This was Xavier, 1943-1956.

XAVIER HIGH SCHOOL is dedicated to one purpose, the Christian education of youth. Inspired by the encyclical of the saintly Pius XI, her sole endeavor is to form Christ in the heart of every student, and toward that end she directs her every effort. Her plan of education is designed to help her students toward the goal of complete and perfect womanhood in an atmosphere permeated with Christian life, on principles founded on Christian ethics, and animated by the spirit of Christian love. The Xavier graduate has been trained not only in the art of living graciously, but in the finer art of living grace-fully — the all-important art of living Christ.

FAMILIAR scenes at Xavier . . . These are the off-the-record scenes which often make the most lasting impressions, catching the living moments for a storehouse of memories.

EDUCATION FOR LEADERSHIP is the purpose of the Xavier Student Council. Its members are elected by popular vote at a general election of the student body in May, their term of office extending through the following school year. Affiliated with the National Association of Student Councils of Secondary Schools, the work of this organization is to promote the active participation of the students in all school activities, to foster worth-while projects for the betterment of the school, and to form a nucleus of student government to cooperate with the faculty in the maintenance of good order and discipline. Student Council officers are given the recognition due to school leaders, but they likewise assume the responsibilities of true leadership.

SODALITY

"TO JESUS THROUGH MARY" — the motto and aim of every sodalist. The Xavier Sodality of Our Lady strives to draw its members closer to our Virgin Mother and her Divine Son through imitation of the virtues of their lives in the practice of the Spiritual and Corporal Works of Mercy.

GOOD SHEPHERD GUILD

THE JUNIOR Good Shepherd Guild is organized to give material assistance and to perform apostolic works for the benefit of the Good Shepherd Home for Girls. In cooperation with the Sisters of the Good Shepherd, members of the Guild teach summer classes in Christian Doctrine, help with clerical work in the office, and sponsor social functions to raise funds for the welfare of the school. In this way they are made aware of the solidarity of human society and the effect of their actions upon the lives of others.

HONOR SOCIETY

FIRST AND second honor students grow into their role of "intelligent Catholics."

Right: Charter members of the Regina Caeli Chapter of the National Honor Society are Theresa Gaston, Peggy Bell, Cathy Geare, Bernice McDonald, Suzette Herbu-veaux, Grace Silva, Marianne Ludwig, Elaine Walsh, and Mary Cavanaugh.

CONFRATERNITY

THE SOCIAL-MINDEDNESS of the Church inspires Xavier girls to give their time and efforts to the apostolic works of the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine, developing in themselves an "awareness of the Mystical Body of Christ and their consequent responsibility to parish, diocese, and the Universal Church."

ST. ANTHONY teachers include:
standing, Margaret Daggett,
Bernice McDonald, Sally Stephen,
Gail Harms, and Lorraine
Couturier; seated, Cathy Geare and Lorna Swanson. Linda Langlois teaches at St. Agnes.

AROUND THE back patio fountain are the St. Mary Magdalen workers: standing, Roberta Schultz, Judy Clear, Mary Deddens, Pat Sullivan, Eleanor Huber, and Marjorie Escalante; seated, Donna De Forest, Donna Colletti, Mary Kay Landkamer, and Barbara Hruby.

ASSISTING Father Ferrell at the Indian School are: standing, Lois Noren, Pat Walsh, and Marilyn Meredith; seated, Pat Griffith, Sharon Doran, Frances Nace, and Bernadette Gasper.

Glee Club President Theresa Gaston
Vice-President Joanne Smoot
Secretary-Treasurer Cathy Geare

GLEE CLUB

THE XAVIER GLEE CLUB is composed of approximately ninety girls who have a common love of music and enjoy the fellowship of singing together. Highlights of the year are the Candlelighting Ceremony in December in honor of Christ's birth, and the Spring Concert in April, climaxing a year of specialized training and hard practice.

Lower left: We made it! Welcoming smiles greet the finished product as circulation gets under way.

Below: Only the photographer can get the whole staff together at one time — and make them smile!

Upper right: Lost, strayed or stolen? We hope it isn't our beautiful new cover the art staff is looking for!

Lower right: Business as usual . . . and there's more to this business than meets the eye.

THE XAVIERIAN, the only official publication of Xavier High School, is produced each Spring by the student body under the direction of a senior staff and a faculty moderator. In 1947, a paper-bound Xavierian made its first appearance, and through succeeding years it has assumed its present form. The 1956 annual commemorates the tenth anniversary of that first publication. Through work on such a school project, it is believed that in addition to experience in the field of journalism on the part of the staff, the students acquire initiative and responsibility as well as a deeper appreciation of their school and its problems.

JUNIOR AUXILIARY

"SENSITIVE to the claims of charity," she will "work for the elimination of suffering, and promote the common good, even at personal sacrifice." Such is the Catholic student who is impregnated with the social-mindedness of the Church. And such is the faithful member of the St. Joseph Hospital Junior Auxiliary. Ready for any work consistent with her age and ability, she gives generously of her time and effort to help the sick and those who care for them.

ALUMNAE

IN THE SPRING of 1955, a reorganization of the Xavier Alumnae Association brought about a revision of the constitution and a stimulation of interest in the building project of the high school. Such social functions as the Fall Fashion Show, the Christmas Tea, and the New Year's Dance will become a part of the program to keep in touch with friends of high school years and to further the interests of their Alma Mater. The Class of '55 at graduation breakfast, and the annual Christmas Tea at the convent are pictured on these pages.

Upper right, Newly-elected officers surround Our Lady's statue: Jean Ann Senese, recording secretary, Maggie Romley, treasurer, Virginia Tiffany, social chairman, Marie Schmitt, president, Mary Saffert Gray, vice-president, and Lois Fechte, corresponding secretary.

THE XAVIER HIGH SCHOOL Mothers Club was established in January, 1956, in preparation for the removal of the student body into the new building. Since the opening of Xavier in September, 1943, high school mothers had belonged to the grammar school club, but because of a diversity of interest and because Xavier students come from nearly every parish in the city, a separate organization was deemed advisable.

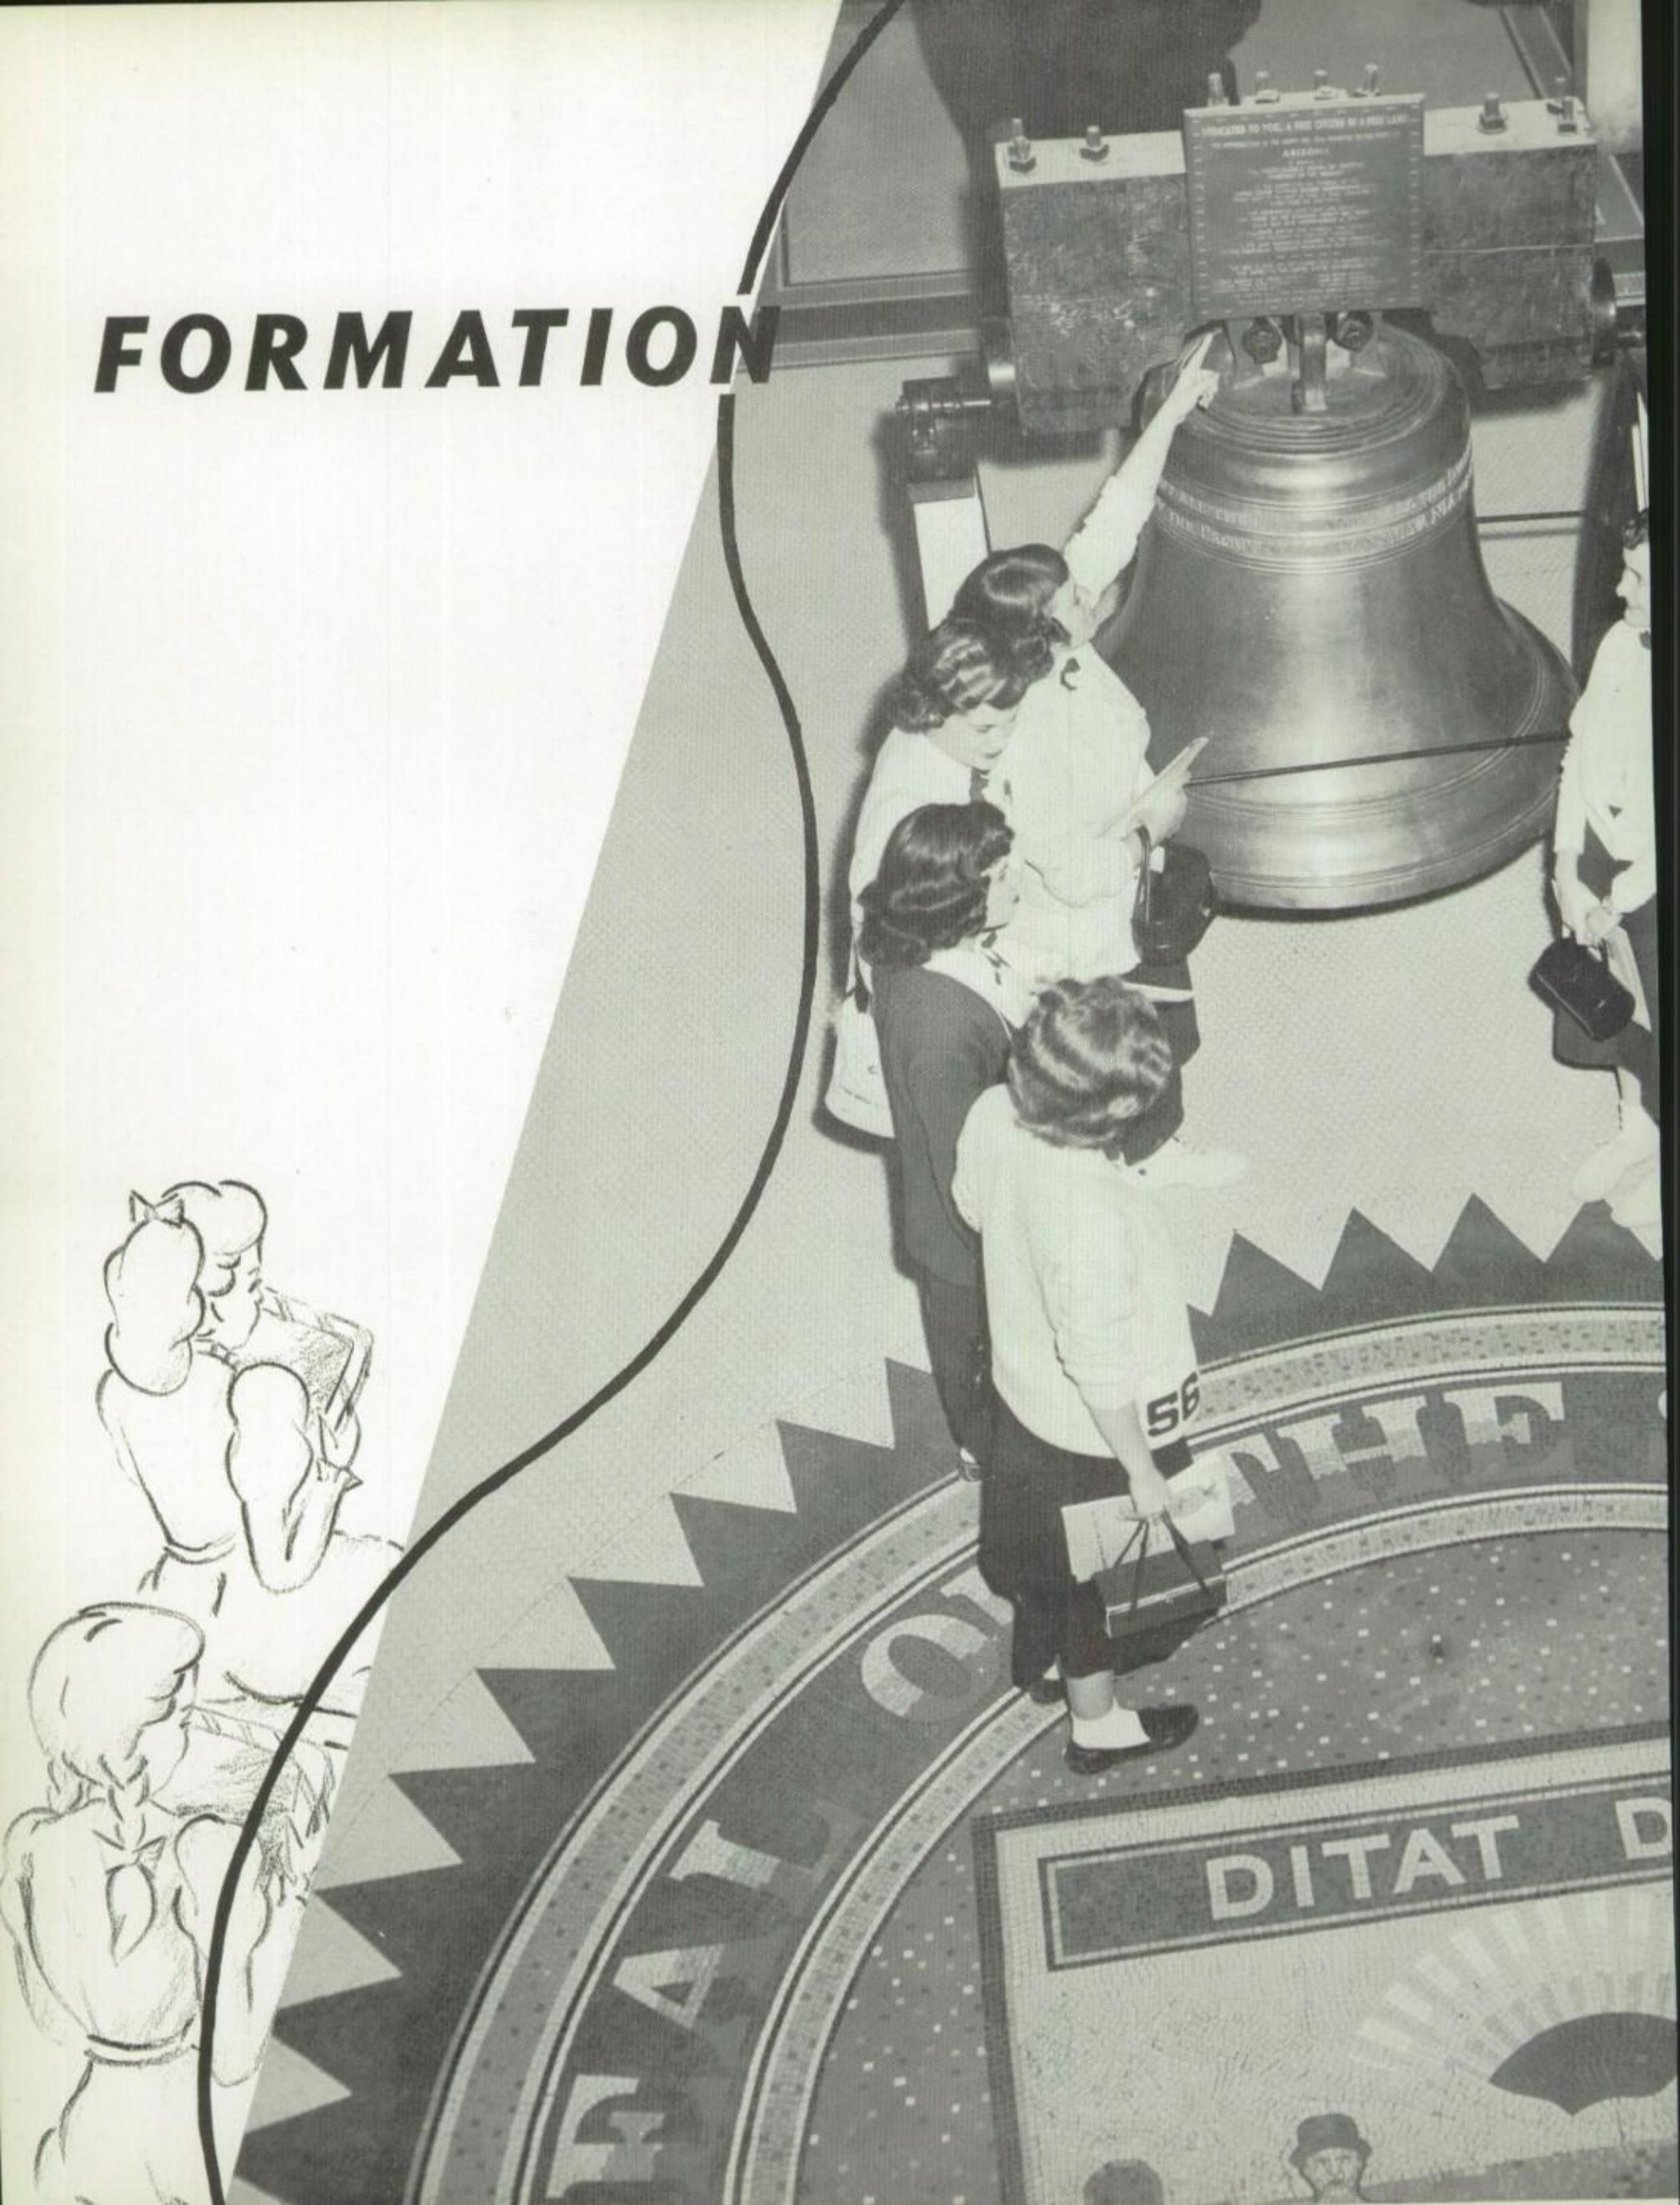

The Mothers Club exists only for the betterment of the high school, and its primary ends are to provide material assistance whenever it is needed, and to foster friendly relations among the parents of the Xavier students.

XAVIER HIGH SCHOOL MOTHERS CLUB

FORMATION

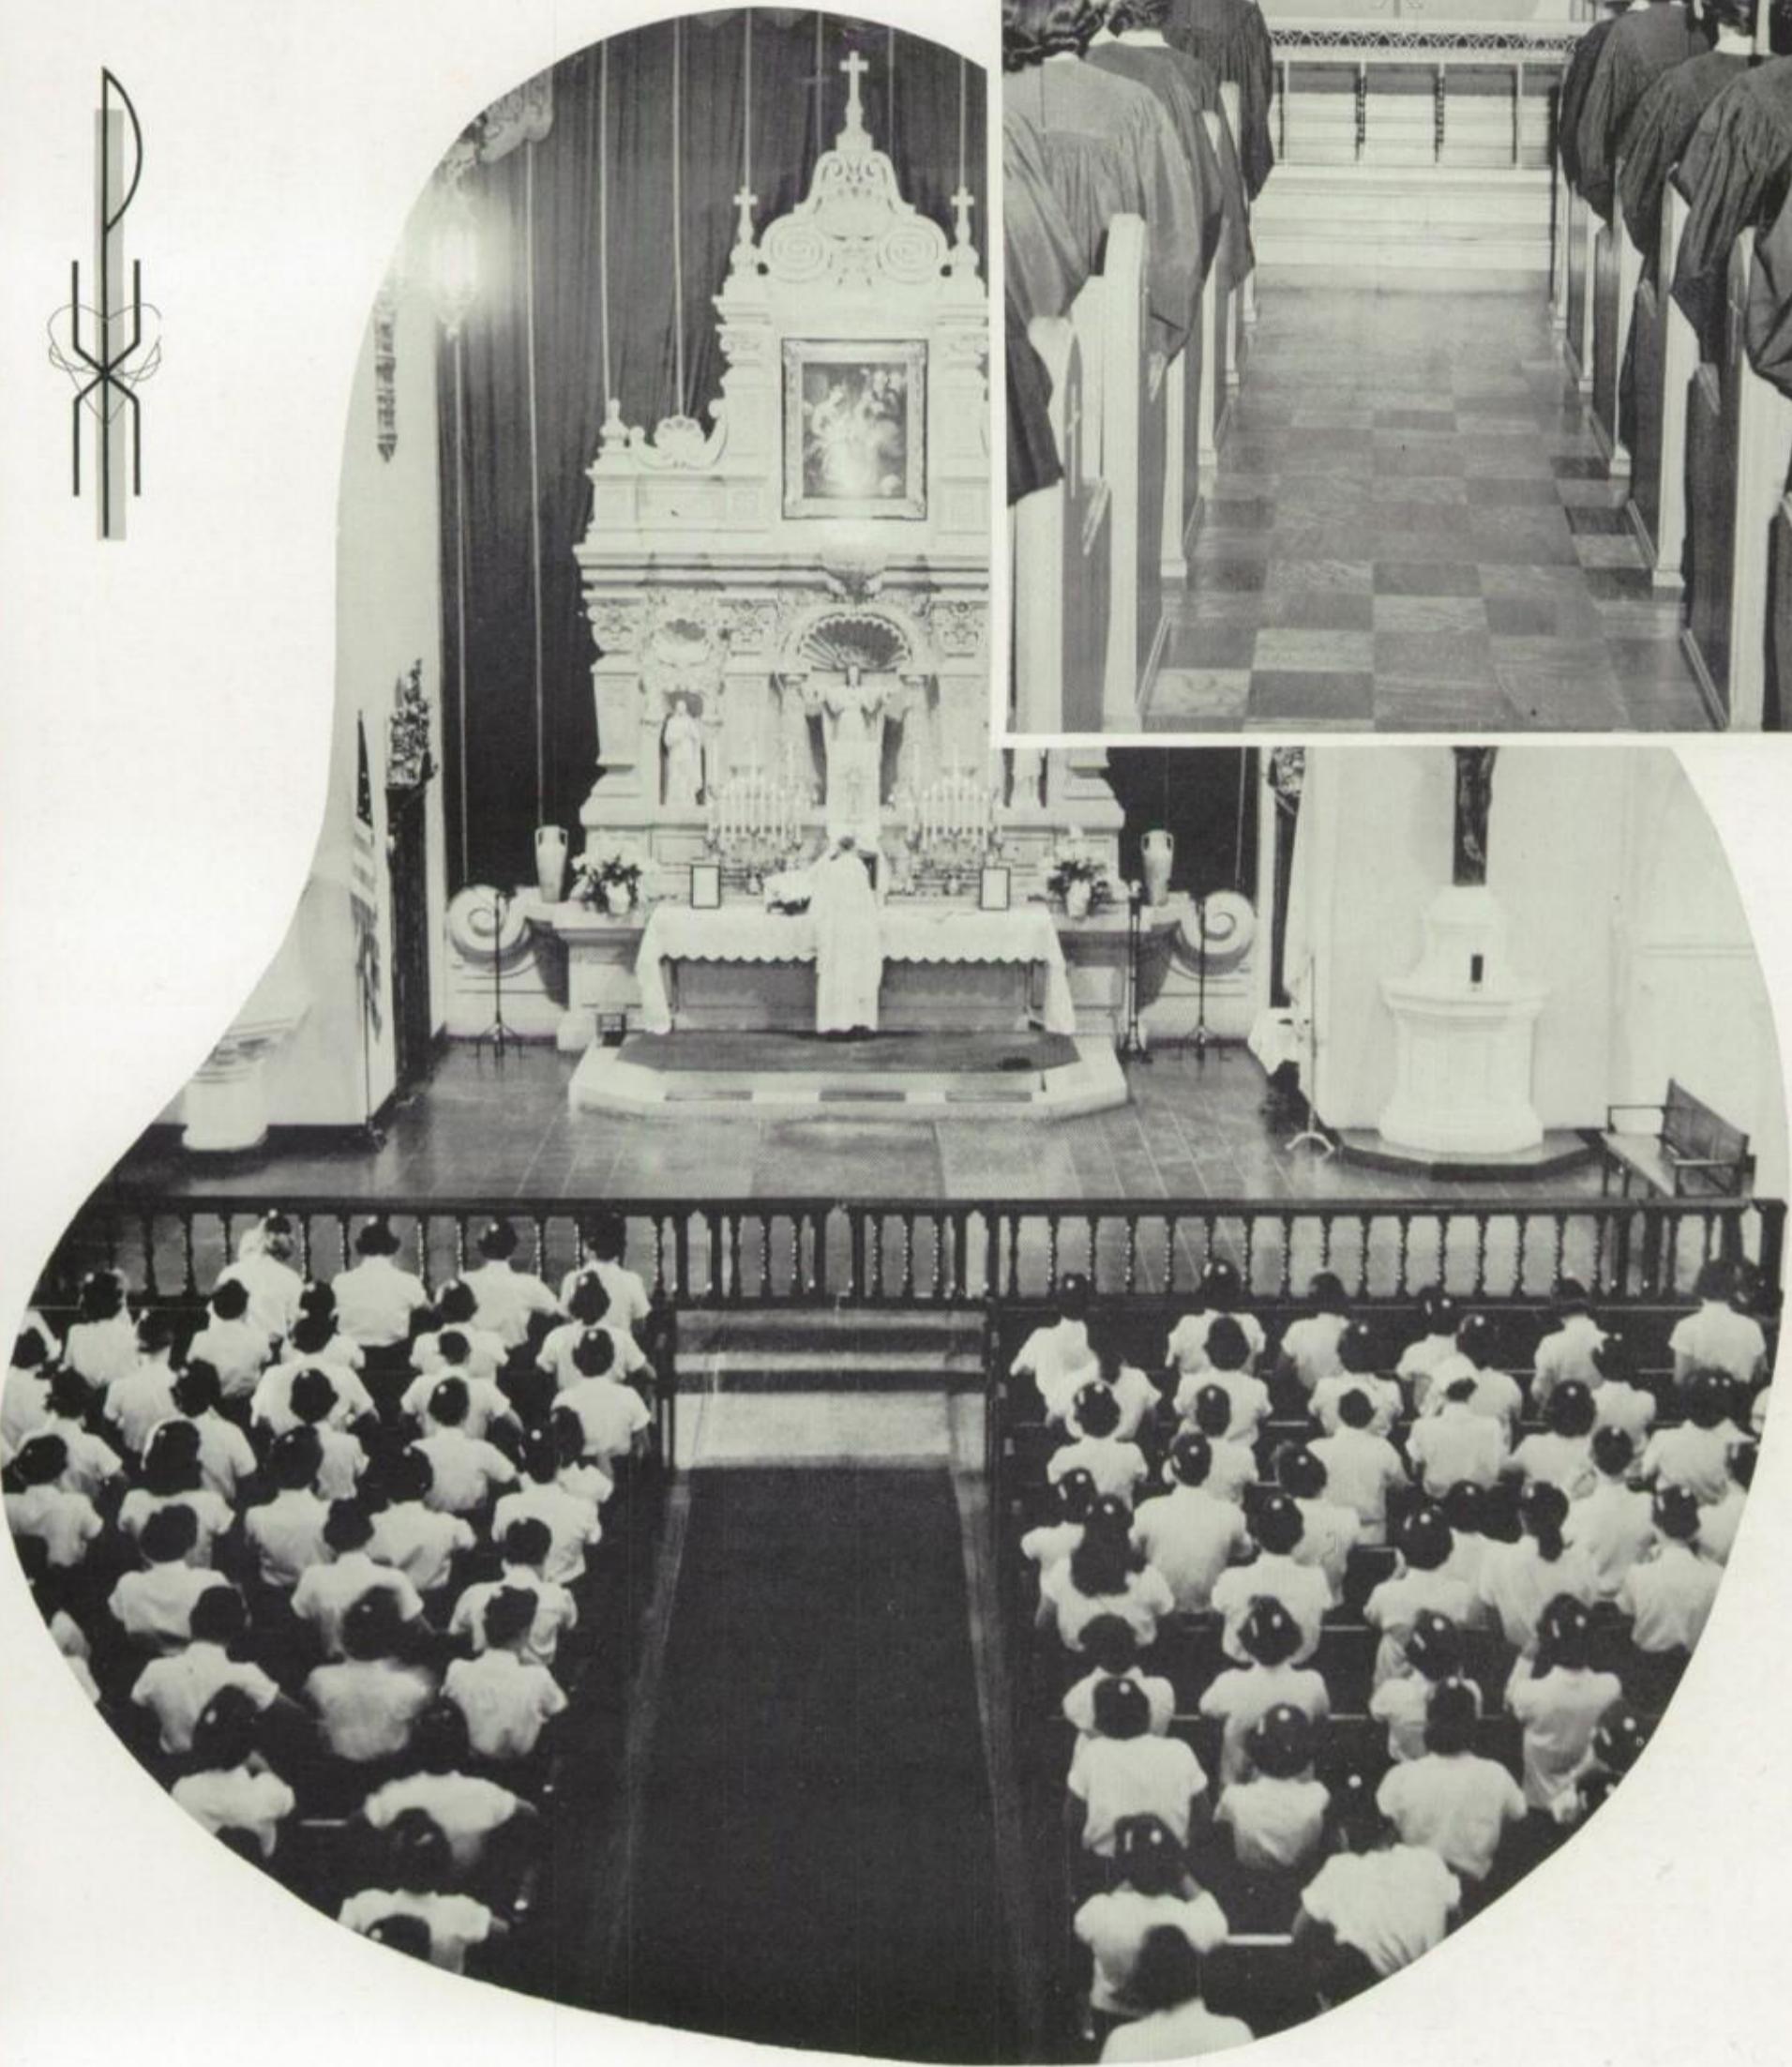

"Christian education takes in the whole aggregate of human life, physical and spiritual, intellectual and moral, individual, domestic, and social . . . in order to elevate, regulate and perfect it . . ."

Forming
"spiritually vigorous"
Catholics . . .

THE HEART of Xavier is the Sacred Heart in the Blessed Sacrament. The annual retreat, the lovely December Rose Ceremony, First Friday Mass and Holy Communion . . . here is built up that reserve of spiritual strength which characterizes the Christian woman.

SPIRITUAL

THE CONSTANT interest of their pastor, Rev. Daniel J. Kelleher, S.J., the spiritualizing of every activity, quiet visits to Christ in the tabernacle, all help in developing dynamic Catholic leadership.

EARLY in September, the Class of 1956 consecrated themselves to their beloved Patron and asked the Sacred Heart of Jesus to guide their senior year. Here they gather lovingly about Him to dedicate their every hour of work and play and study to His service.

A CLOSED senior retreat at the Casa de Paz y Bien is to become a Xavier tradition. Here the retreatants relax with their retreat master, Father Kelleher.

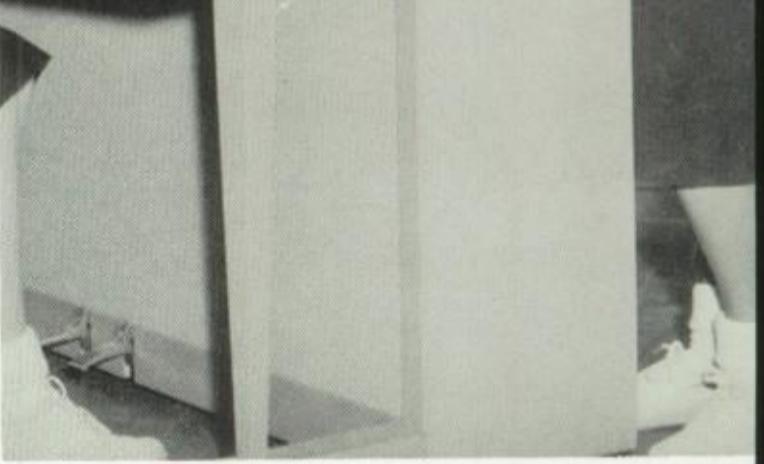

CULTURAL

Forming the "cultured Catholic,"
the woman of dignity . . .

WHETHER IN THE FIELD of music, drama, art, or literature, the student is given opportunity for the development of an intelligent appreciation of beauty as a reflection of the infinite beauty of God. At Xavier, the Christian philosophy underlying the approach to fine arts is to make of them the medium whereby the fruits of human wisdom and genius may be made to redound to the glory of God from Whom they came.

FRESHMAN choral groups through research and through experience see what happens when the Music Goes 'Round and Around. Insert: For Monnie Tiffany and Rita Schmidt it's Sailing Down the River.

"The subject of Christian education is man, whole and entire . . . with all his faculties natural and supernatural . . ."

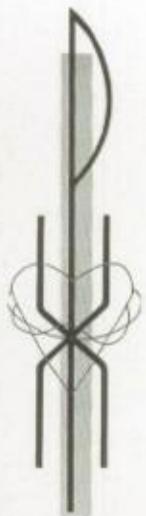

The new Xavier in the making. Volunteer workers (above) feel that the surest way of getting a job finished is to do it yourself.

IT'S THE END of the line at old Xavier, as Brophy Prep reclaims its original building. Students and faculty alike suffer many a pang of nostalgia for the years which have passed so swiftly, hallowing the very walls with memories. How many the youthful lives fashioned to goodness and beauty here; how many the hearts and minds disciplined to achievement. To Brophy Preparatory we wish success and happiness as we bow out and leave to them their heritage.

FORMING the leaders of tomorrow — the truly "American Catholic," who profits by training for participation in civic life gained by assuming and carrying social responsibilities in the realm of school-life. Above: Graduation, 1955. The Most Reverend Francis J. Green, Auxiliary Bishop of Tucson, . . .

Cathy Geare, last year's Girls State Representative, shows her membership certificate to the 1956 representative, Grace Silva.

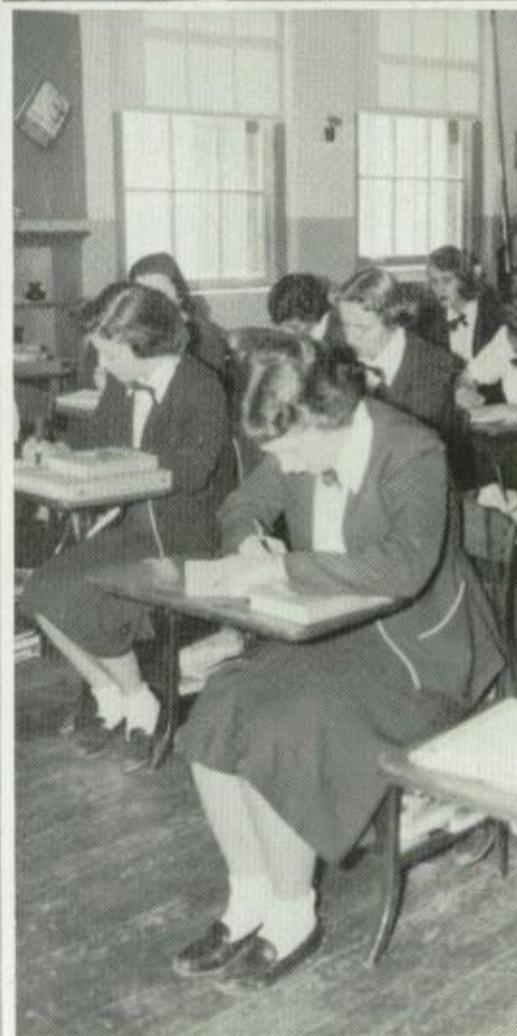

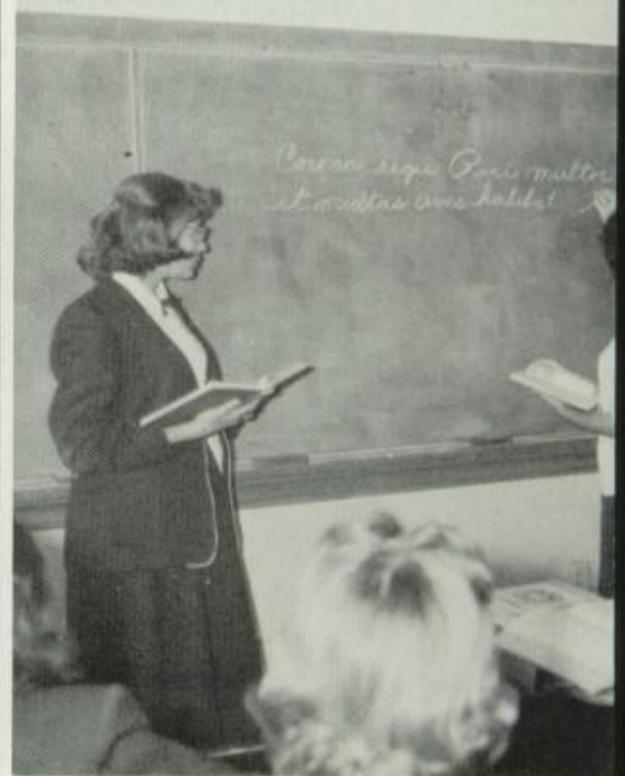

Leaders of the senior class are greeted by Father Kelleher after installation ceremony. Below: Donna Deuel Ruesenberg, '49, exemplifies worthy home leadership.

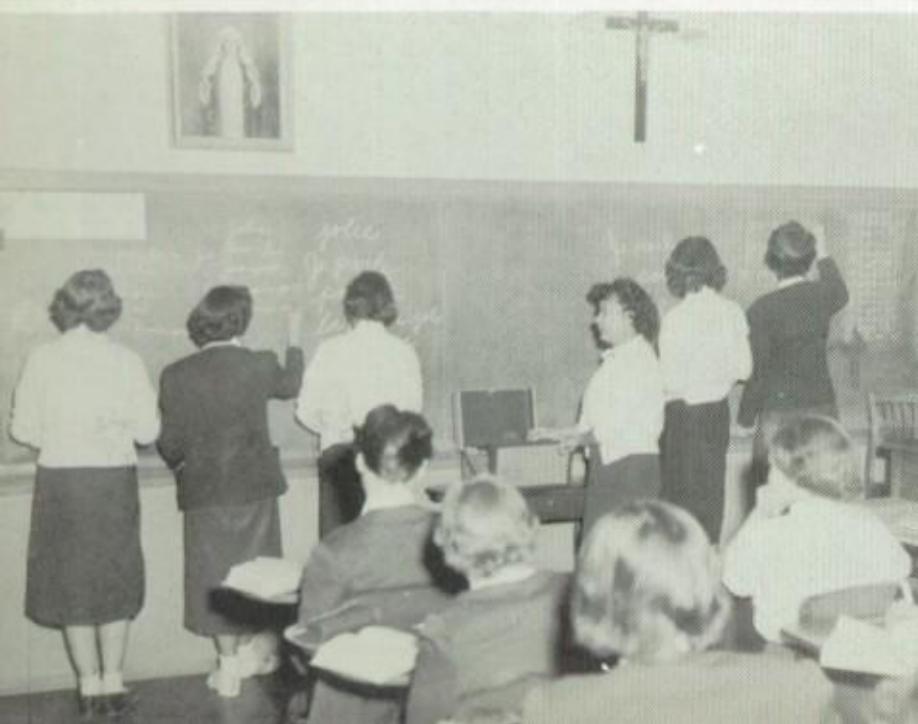

. . . gives a final word of approval and encouragement. Left: Patricia O'Connor, '52, President of the Alumnae Association of Student Nurses, advises Molly O'Rourke and Mary Brown, '55, in her capacity of Advisor of the Arizona Association of Student Nurses.

Left: Spanish the easy way — this was time out for breath from the Mexican Hat Dance; the hard way — a weekly test.

Left: This looks like French, but these freshmen insist they can do it in Latin, Spanish, German, and — you name it! We don't think they learn Sanscrit in this general language course, however.

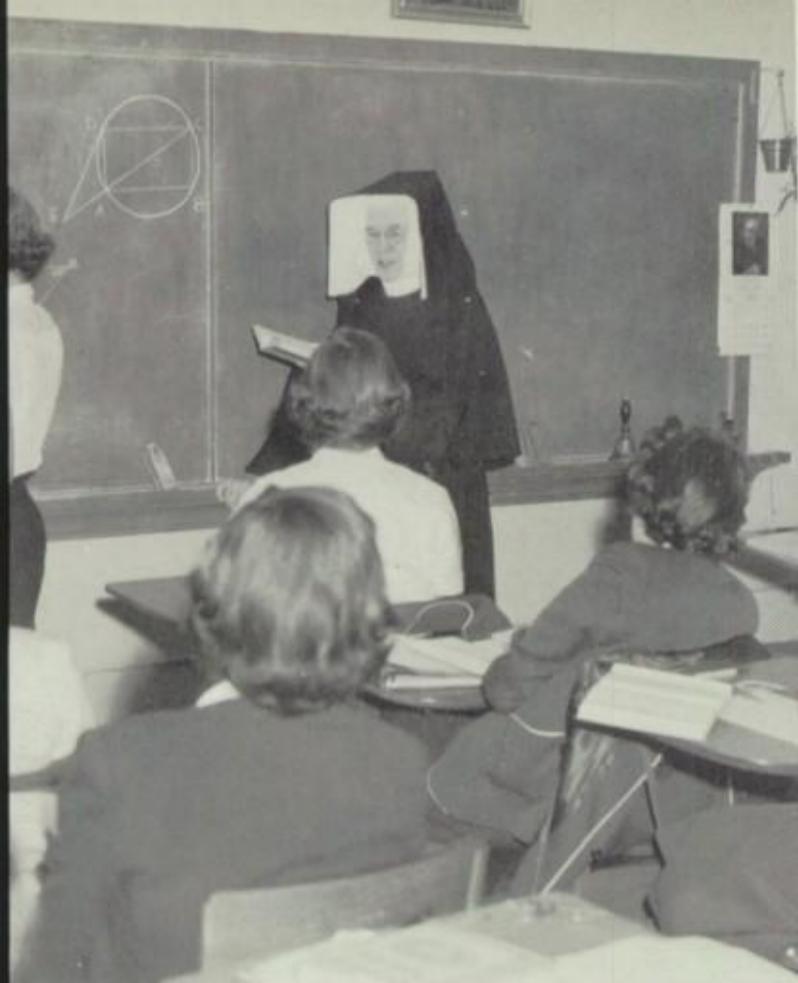

Upper right: No one but Vergil deserves that much attention!
Lower right: These smiling Roman ladies acquired their charm in the more realistic shot of Latin I, center, above.

IONS, ATOMS, molecules, colloids — what are they? Junior and senior chemistry students try to impress Father Jacobs that they really do know. And that graph! The second year algebra class will try anything — or could it be a camera pose?

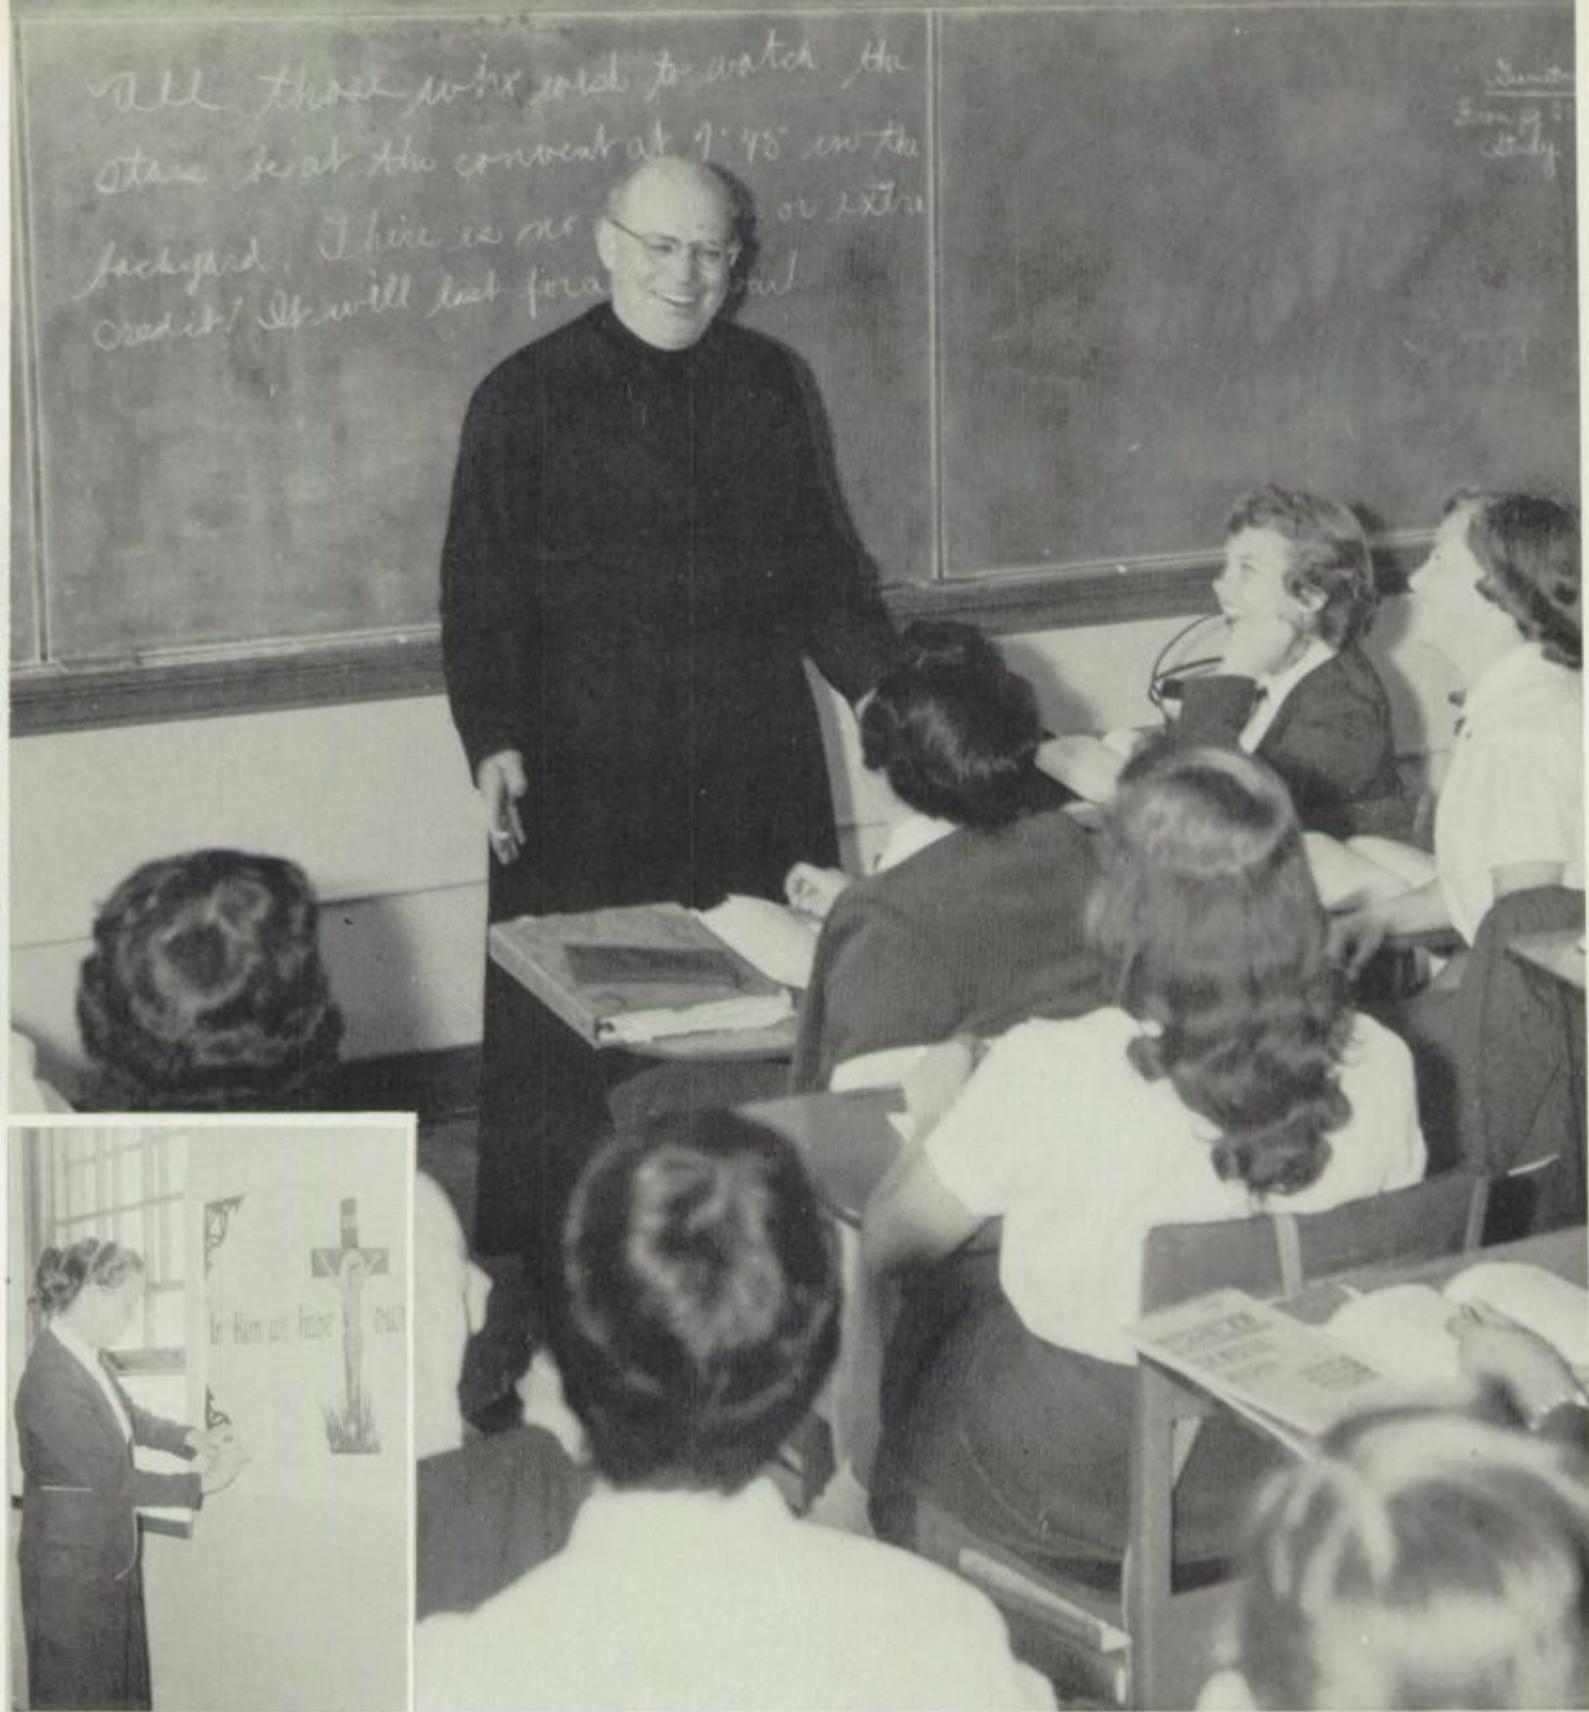

WHO WOULD HAVE thought that multiplication and division could develop into such geometric snares and algebraic snarls? Oh, well — at least the teachers look happy! We're hoping that heredity diagram, center right, doesn't mean our poor mannekin's children will have open-air digestive systems!

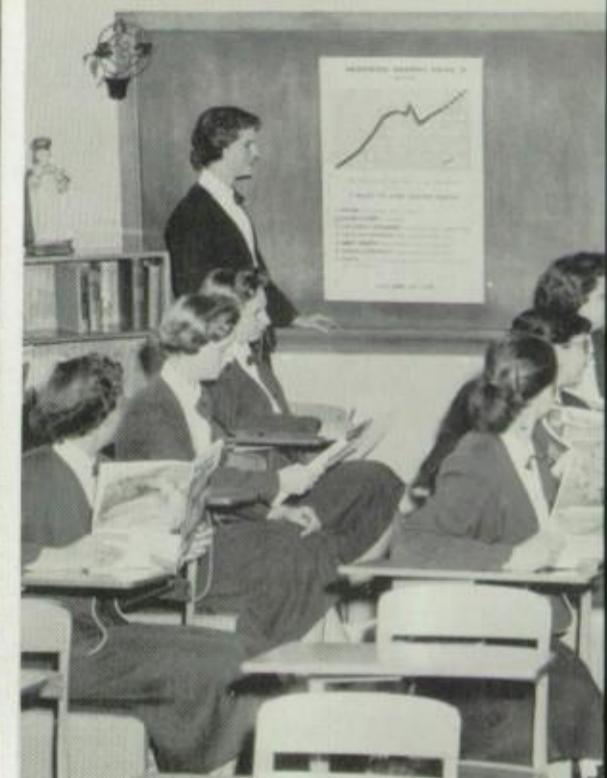

TO NO SUBJECT is given greater prominence than to the doctrines of our Faith. Father McNally's witticisms keep the freshman and junior classes smiling as they absorb the all-important principles of Catholic philosophy.

All those who wish to watch the stars let at the convocation at 7:45 in the backyard. There is no charge or extra credit! It will last for a year!

"THE TRUTHS men live by" are the very heart of the Catholic school curriculum. Father Ferrell and Father Monaghan dispense the truth to sophomore and senior classes respectively, by giving of themselves "with the truth adhering."

"This changing world" is nowhere so appropriate a theme as in the history classes. Here we range from freshman Costumes through the Ages (lower left) up through Latin-American and European affairs to a junior current events discussion.

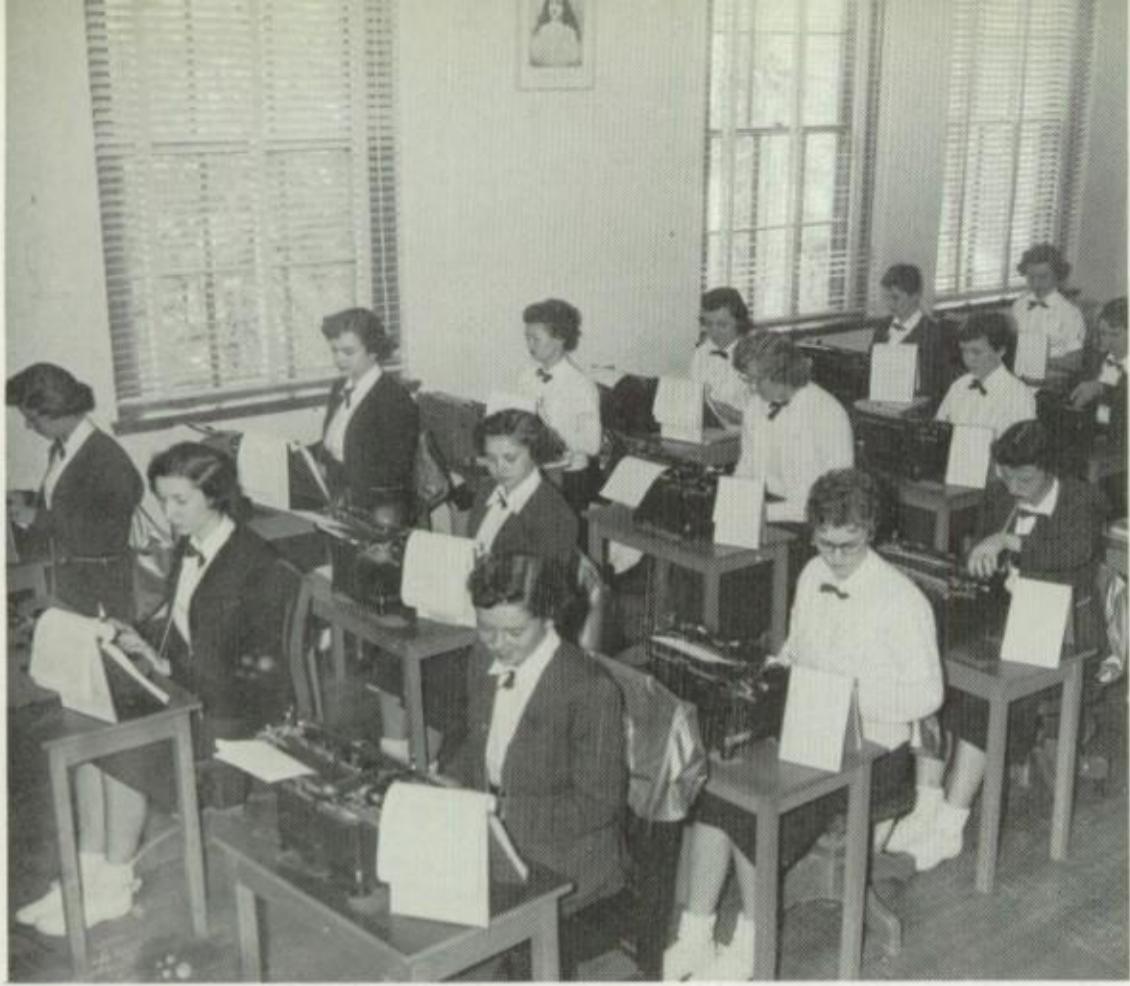

Upper right: A court session in the Arizona State Capitol Building gives the senior civics class the right opening for many an informative and heated discussion. Above: They learn to solve their income (!) tax problems. Right: Young Americans are formed in patriotism and appreciation of their country's greatness in the American history class.

THE ENGLISH DEPARTMENT of any high school holds one of the most obvious implements for the forming of life philosophy. Here, whether through a friendly senior round table, a close oratorical contest, the reading of simple pamphlets or of great literature, or the gracious charm of a junior book-week tea — the goal is the realization of Catholic philosophy in forming youth to Christ.

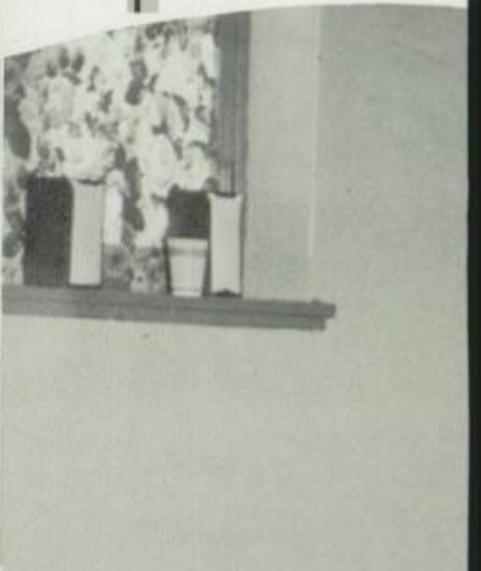

Forming the "vocationally prepared Catholic" in a specific field is exemplified in the commerce classes — white-collar girls making ready to take on the whole business world single-handed!

Upper right: "Whoa, Sister! Sure that's only a hundred twenty words a minute?" Right: Father Joe practices patience while Nadine practices her shorthand on her first job.

SOCIAL

"The true Christian . . .

ennobles what is merely natural in life . . ."

SOCIAL FUNCTIONS lighten the stern atmosphere of books, and further the ends of education, not only in providing needed relaxation, but in creating situations in which the student is brought face to face with another broad objective upon which were built such basic ideals as those of chivalry, attention to refined manners, careful dress, and proper speech . . . a whole code of Christian deportment. Formal and informal affairs are sponsored by the various organizations of the school, and the general attendance of the student body is urged.

ALL WORK and no play makes Jane a dull girl. Formal and semi-formal social events keep Jane from becoming dull, and give her the poise and social charm so necessary in the formation of the gracious woman.

MEMORABLE EVENINGS on Xavier's social calendar were the Sock Hop, the Ballerina Ball, and the senior-sponsored Holiday Whirl. Springtime will mean another whirl of year-end events as the seniors are honored by each of the classes before graduation.

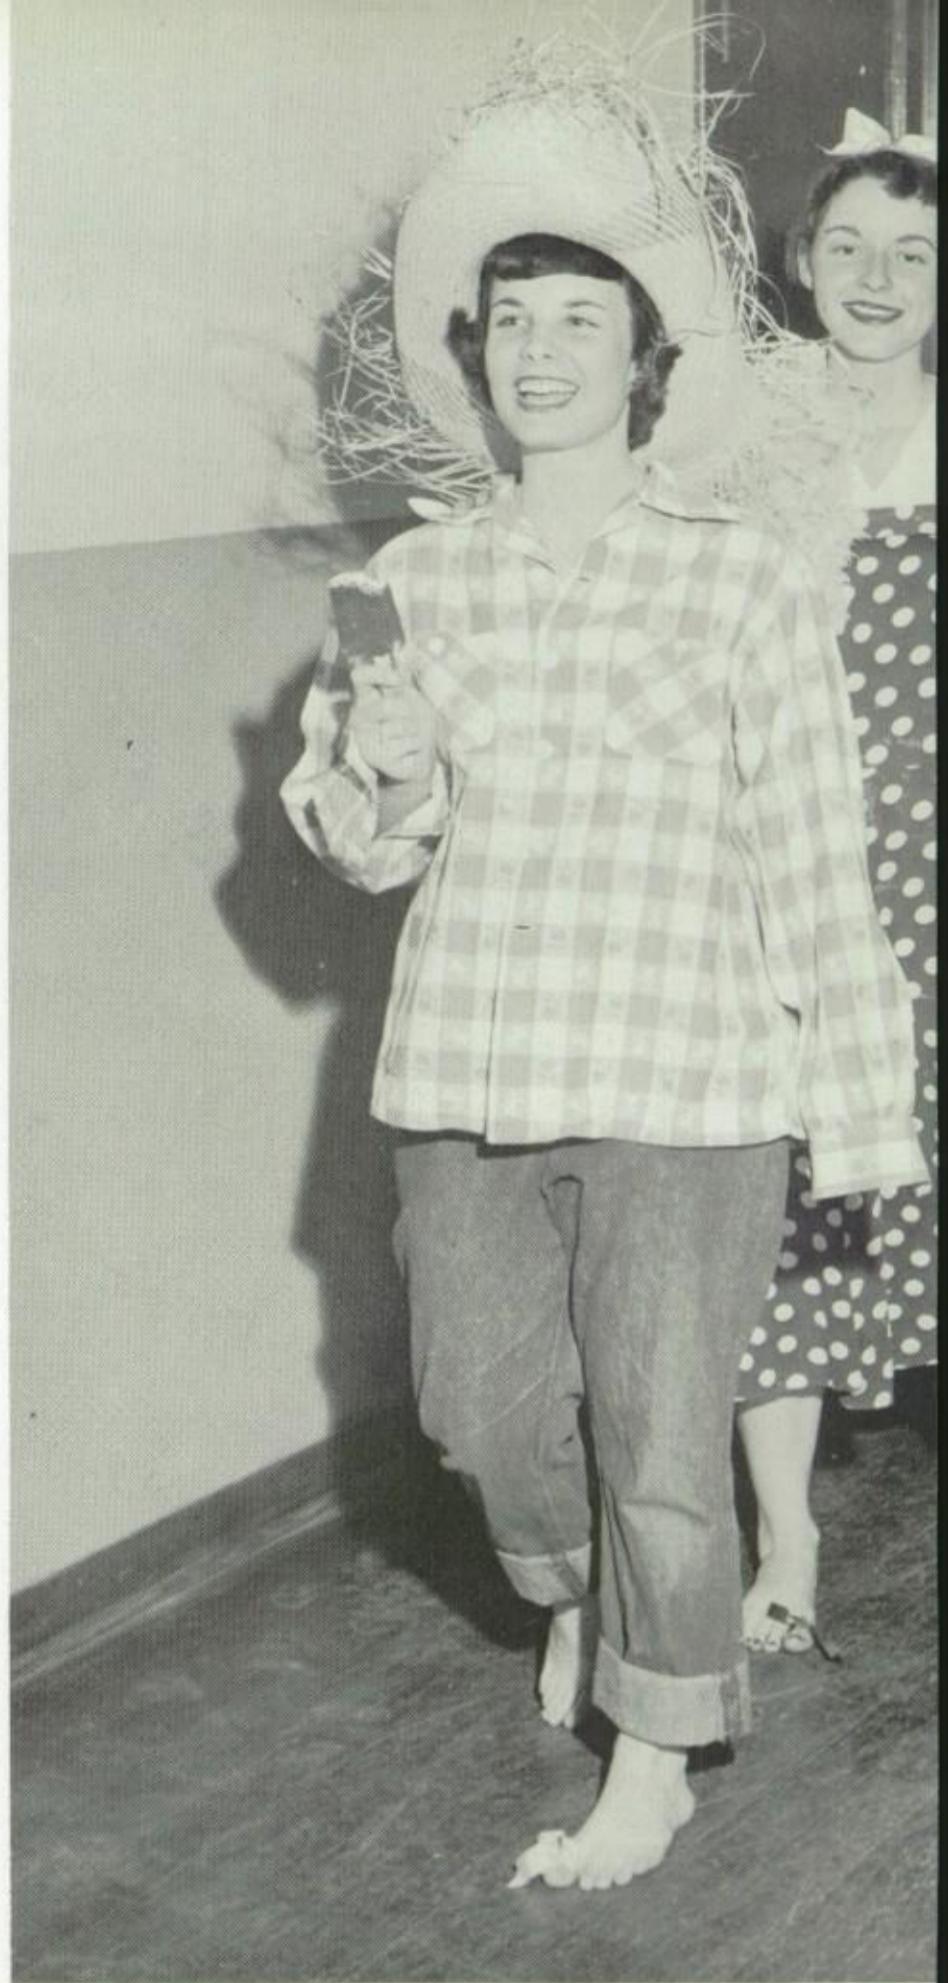

RECREATIONAL

"The true Christian does not renounce the activities of this life . . . but develops and perfects them . . ."

"THE ONLY ACTIVITIES proper to a Catholic school are those which further the ends of Catholic education itself." Among these are those recreational functions which are conducive to the development of the individual into a social being recognizing and respecting the rights of others. The code of Christian deportment found in the Second Great Commandment is made meaningful when put into effect.

INITIATIONS are in order. Seniors, sophomores, and G.A.A. her inferiority. If using her as a pack horse doesn't do it, maybe sodalists and probationers in "We-ain't-got-a-barrel-of-money" vie with one another in making the freshman conscious of drowning will. Above, sedate Sodality officers entertain fashion.

SOLEMN senior judgment . . .
rollicking western welcome (sophomorish, that is!) . . . and
"South of the Border."

RIGHT, Mary Lou and friend (the only Spaniard present!) and Marguerite and — well, it's your guess!

PHYSICAL

Forming the "healthy Catholic" — one who keeps the body a physically fit instrument of the soul.

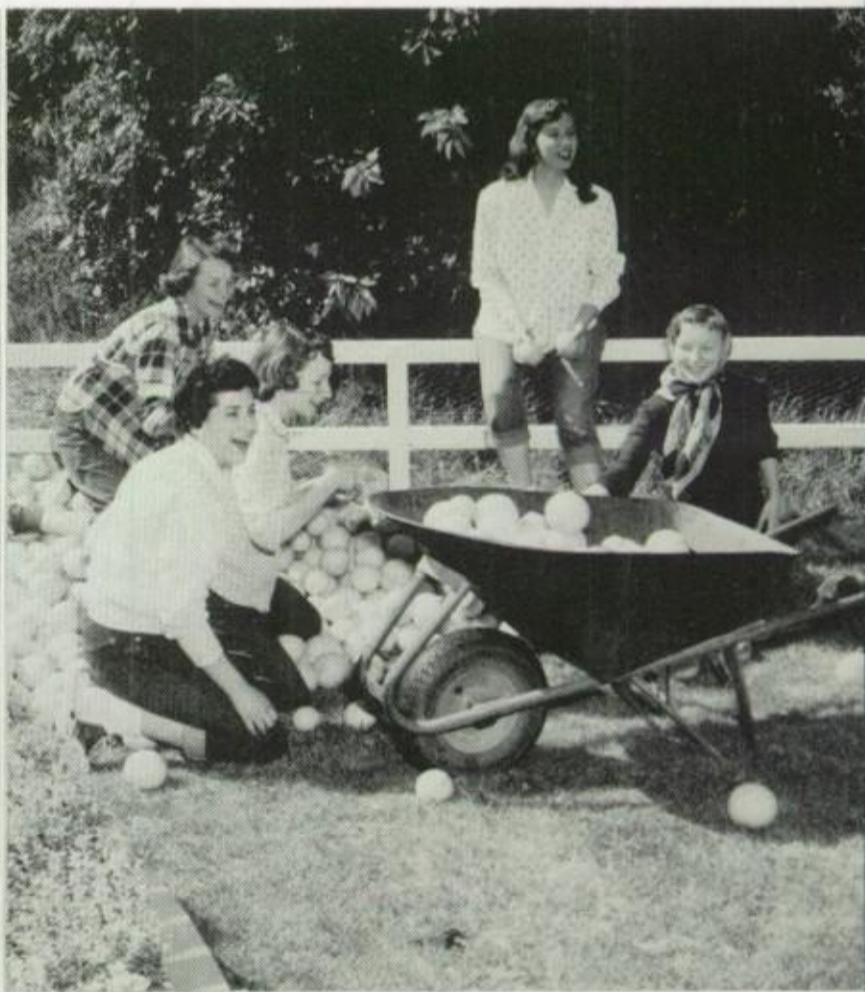

FUNCTIONAL

Forming "socially-minded" Catholics, aware of the solidarity of human society . . .

IN THE SCHOOL democracy are afforded opportunities for developing norms of social behavior for life situations. Volunteering office help, participation in civic projects, or initiating and putting into effect charitable projects are laboratory sessions in the process of social education.

"GRAPEFRUIT for St. John's Indian Mission!" became the campaign slogan for a project growing out of a discussion in sophomore English. The result? A wonderful Saturday picnic and a deluge of grapefruit.

A BEAUTIFUL CHAPEL in their new school inspires the presentation of a student body gift of eighteen hundred dollars for the purchase of pews. Making the presentation to Father Kelleher are Pat Walsh, Cathy Geare, and Lorraine Couturier.

FIXING CHRISTMAS BASKETS, helping in the office, teaching God's little ones, or raffling Sister Mary Francis in an apostolic cause . . . these help to fulfill the command, "Love thy neighbor as thyself."

"GO WEST, YOUNG LADY!" Junior art students place first in the civic division of the annual J.C. rodeo for their float depicting the continuity of religious service from the days of Padre Kino. The float shows, on one side, Indians before a rude altar; on the other side are modern Xavier girls worshiping before a modern altar.

Right: Candidates for Queen of Xavier Fiesta: Margaret Daggett, Margie Gillson, Mary Wallace, Judy Roberts, and Peggy Kountz.

APPRECIATION

TO THE MANY FRIENDS and advertisers who have so generously supported the 1956 Xavierian the students and faculty extend a sincere "thank you."

The entire staff wishes to express its appreciation to the faculty and student body for their service and cooperation; to its patient and long-suffering photographer, Eddie Deuel; to Mr. L. Max Connolly of the Arizona Yearbook Company for his courteous and friendly help; and to the Xavier Art Department, under the direction of Sister Mary Solana, B.V.M., for the beautiful cover design and the artistic sketches which introduce the sections of the Xavierian.

The advertisement features a large stylized 'B' and 'C' where the 'B' has a smaller 'D' inside its left vertical stroke. To the right of the 'C', the word 'BERT' is written vertically. To the right of 'BERT', the word 'CAVANAGH' is written in a bold, blocky font. To the right of 'CAVANAGH', the word 'Realty' is written in a cursive script. Above the 'B', there is a signpost with the word 'Phone' and the number 'AL 2-1765'. To the right of the main text, there is a vertical bar containing the words 'FINE HOMES', 'BUSINESS', 'AND', 'INVESTMENT PROPERTIES'. To the right of this bar, another vertical bar contains the words 'REAL ESTATE', 'MORTGAGES', and 'INSURANCE'. Below the 'B' and 'C', there is a small illustration of a house with trees. At the bottom, the address '1315 N. CENTRAL AVE. • PHOENIX, ARIZON' is written.

Your Inheritance is Freedom

Anything which threatens the independence of an individual, his family, or his business . . . endangers the very principles which made our country great.

Today, all of us must keep our eyes and ears open . . . be ever alert. For there are some who through ignorance and malice would destroy our Free Enterprise System . . . and, our nation with it.
